Dear Military Member (still serving or retired):

Let me welcome you to the Atlanta Council on International Relations (ACIR). At ACIR, we know what it means to serve. You may be interested to know that I as well as Dr. Bob Kennedy, ACIR President, both had long and distinguished military careers. To honor your current and/or past service to our great nation, we are pleased to offer you a complimentary one-year membership to the ACIR.

Membership in the ACIR brings with it many benefits for you to enjoy. This includes discounted member pricing to our programs which includes luncheons, conferences, and formal dinners to name but a few. It also means discounted subscriptions to major international affairs publications and access to a strong and growing network of thought leaders in the greater Atlanta and North and Central Georgia region.

Taking advantage of this opportunity is easy. Simply email us at info@atlantacir.org with subject line "Military Member." In the body of the email include your first and last name and your mailing address. Finally, please upload as an attachment a copy of the front side of your military ID for verification purposes. We will do the rest.

In closing, please accept my heartfelt gratitude for representing all that is good about America. I very much look forward to having you join us and to meeting you in the days ahead.

Sincerely,

Stephen E. Bergey
